

On Thursday, April 14th, 2011, the Harvard Club of Austria organized an evening with Ioan Holender, the former Director of the Vienna State Opera (Wiener Staatsoper), across the street from the opera building, at Cafe Sacher (see also attached invitation).

Following an interesting tour d'horizon about cultural institutions in Europe and the United States in general, as well as Vienna's State Opera and New York's Metropolitan Opera in more detail, Dr. Holender readily answered questions of the more than 30 participants for an hour.

