

Dear members and friends of the Harvard Club of Austria,

Employee or Entrepreneur? That's the question we will pose to our special guests at our next club event. On April 26, we will be pleased to welcome two particularly interesting and insightful guests to discuss the pros and cons of self-employment from two very different perspectives:

- Gerald Hörhan (1958), investment banker, international bestselling author and one of Austria's most controversial experts on socio-economic matters. Gerald's claim to fame was his book "Investment Punk", published in 2010, in which he shared his view, and advice, on the current perils of the middle class. Check out his profile at http://investmentpunk.com/!
- Lukas Mandl, up-and-coming politician, outspoken conservative and secretary-general of the Austrian Association of Employees and Workers (ÖAAB). Lukas not only is one of the youngest Austrian politicians ever to have risen to an important policy-defining position, those who know him better also value his deliberate, yet sincerely visionary approach to politics. You can find more information about Lukas at <http://www.oeaab.com/b2048m72>.

We will kick the evening off with opening remarks from both Gerald and Lukas, and will then invite everyone to join in what will certainly be a lively discussion.

Date: April 26th, 2012

Time: 7:30 p.m.

Location: Österreichische Gesellschaft für Außenpolitik und die Vereinten Nationen (ÖGAVN)

Reitschulgasse 2/2. OG, 1010 Wien

We are particularly grateful to the ÖGAVN that we can use their club rooms again. Please make sure to register with Ms. Bianca Flenreisz by e-mail (bianca.flenreisz@hvk.at) or telephone (+43 1 904 21 80-131) by no later than April 15, 2012. Refreshments and sandwiches will be served (sponsored by our club).

We look forward to seeing you on April 26 at this very special event.

Sincerely,

Sascha Hödl & Christof Strasser
(President and Secretary)
