

HARVARD CLUB OF AUSTRIA

Vienna, September 10, 2012

INVITATION

FORMAL DINNER AT HOTEL SACHER ON OCCASION OF THE EUROPEAN HARVARD CLUB LEADERS' MEETING 2012

Dear fellow alumni and alumnae,
dear friends of the Harvard Club of Austria,

On September 21-23, 2012, the board of the Harvard Club of Austria (HCA) and the Harvard Alumni Association (HAA) are hosting this year's European Harvard Club Leaders' Meeting in Vienna. Representatives of the Harvard Alumni Association from Cambridge and more than 25 club leaders from European Harvard Clubs will join us in Vienna for this event.

On the occasion of this meeting, the HCA and the HAA will host a formal "welcome dinner" at Hotel Sacher, to which all local Harvard alumni and alumnae and their significant others are warmly welcome to join. This dinner meeting will provide great opportunities to hear the latest news from Harvard faculty, meet many club leaders from different European Harvard Clubs and reconnect with your local alumni and alumnae.

Our key note speaker is Univ.-Prof. Dr. Ewald Nowotny, Governor of the Austrian National Bank and member of the board of the European Central Bank. Governor Nowotny will talk about "The Euro and the US: Some Remarks on a Very Special Relationship." Further, Jorge Dominguez, Vice Provost for International Affairs at Harvard University will update us on all the latest news from Cambridge.

For ease of reference, details of the event are as follows:
